His Wrist Severely Cut.

Friends of Mr. S. F. Yopp will regret to know of a painful accident which befel him late yesterday afternoon at the Fore & Foster mills, where he is employed as a frame maker. Mr. Yopp was working at a a rip saw, when in some way his hand was thrown into the machinery and his wrist was severely cut. He was taken at once to the hospital, where Dr. Akerman dressed the wound. RECEIVER MEARES.

Judge Purnell Throws Affairs of A. & N. C. Railroad Into Federal Courts.

FINAL MEETING BEFORE JULY.

Wilmington Man Honored With Position of Trust and Great Responsibility. Leaves To-day for Raleigh to Qualify and Give Bond.

Capt. Thomas D. Meares, of this city, was on yesterday appointed temporary receiver for the Atlantic and North Carolina Railroad and the probabilities are that the receivership will be made permanent at the final hearing on or before July 1st unless the receivership is vacated in the meantime as Judge Purnell intimated he might do, should the State in the meantime get a proposition for a lease which is considered a safe one. Capt. Meares was for 20 years general agent for the S. A. L. in this city and is in every way qualified to fill with credit to all concerned the important position to which he has been elected. He will leave this evening or to-morrow morning for Raleigh, where he will qualify and proceed at once to Newbern to take charge of the affairs of the road. The following Associated Press telegram was received by the STAR last night:

"RALEIGH, May 28.—A temporary receivership was to-day granted by Judge Thomas R. Purnell in the Federal Court in the case of the complaint of Cuyler, of New York, owner of 37 shares, and K. S. Finch, of New York, owner of 47 shares, against the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad, two-thirds of which belongs to the State. The first receivership made some months ago with V. E. McBee as receiver was vacated by Judge Simonton and to day Thomas D. Meares, of Wilmington, formerly agent of the Sea board Air Line at Wilmington, was named as temporary receiver.

"The further hearing of the case is set before Col. S. G. Ryan, of this city, as special master, to take evidence, which is to be completed by the first of July, when action is to be taken as to a permanent receiver.

"Judge Purnell in his order announced that if the State in the meantime has an offer to lease the road which is considered a safe one, he will vacate the receivership if he approves the lease as a safe one."

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., May 28.—A notable feature of the receivership hearing was the interruption by Judge Purnell of further proceeding when complaint and answer and replication was made with the statement it was clear from admissions made in the answer by defendant that there has been mismanagement, misappropriation of funds and acts ultra vires to amply justify the appointment of a receiver and he would hear counsel on this point. The States counsel asked for time and after two hour's recess returned with a proposition to give bond ample to secure complaints against all loss that they have or may suffer by any conditions or mismanagement of which they complain and against depreciation of the value of stock held by complainants on condition that no receiver be appointed. This lacked authorization by the stockholders or directors and was branded "ultra vires" by complainant's counsel.

A large number of affidavits were offered by the complainant to show the absence of necessity for a receiver, notably by bondholders and creditors of the company. The complainant introduced H. A. Page, who was a member of the investigating committee appointed by the Governor, and, under order from the court, vigorously resisted by the defendants, he produced in court the stenographic report of the examination of witnesses, a volume of 500 pages, and that was filed as evidence for the complainant. It was at this stage of the proceeding that the Judge announced that he saw an almost interminable amount of work in the hearing of the case, and the courts here all next week and in Wilmington next week made it necessary to continue the cause, and an order was made appointing the receiver and naming the special master. He gave permission for the calling of a meeting of the stockholders to consider any lease propositions which could be accepted subject to the approval of the court.

K. S. Finch is made a complainant and Mrs. F. P. Tucker and Dempsey Wood parties defendant.

'TWAS STEDMAN DAY

Thirteen Counties in the State Held Precinct and Township Primaries Yesterday.

REPORTS FROM SEVERAL.

Results Generally Are Highly Satisfactory to Friends of Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, Their Expectations Having Been Fully Met.

Thirteen counties in the State on yesterday held their precinct primaries for the purpose of electing delegates to their several county conventions and special telegraphic reports from nearly all of them were received up to this morning by the STAR and are printed below. The results are very gratifying to the friends of Maj. Stedman here and the fullest expectations of his managers in each of the counties heard from were more than met. The special reports are as follows:

PENDER COUNTY.

BURGAW, N. C., May 28.—The primaries in Pender are closed. Pender is for Stedman for Governor; Thomas for Congress and Hoke for the Supreme Court. The convention will be held Monday, June 6th.

CURRIE, N. C., May 28.—At the primaries in Grady township here to-day the following resolution introduced by Dr. G. F. Lucas was unanimously adopted: "That our delegates to the Pender county Democratic Convention on June 6th are hereby instructed to vote for a resolution of instruction for Maj. Chas. M. Stedman for Governor; Samuel L. Rogers for Corporation Commissioner and Charles R. Thomas for Congress from this district." M. M. Bullard, chairman; A. C. Moore, secretary.

POINT CASWELL, May 26.—The largest and most enthusiastic Democratic primary ever held at Point Caswell was held to day. Maj. Charles M. Stedman was unanimously endorsed for Governor; Hon. G. L. Morton for Lieutenant Governor; Hon. Charles R. Thomas for Congress; Dr. E. Porter for State Senator; Mr. Edmond Hawes, son of Mr. E. A. Hawes, of Atkinson, for the Legislature, and Thos. H. W. McIntire for Register of Deeds. Delegates to the County Convention are, Edmond Hawes, Dick Woodcock and Luke Glisson. Congressional Convention, William Lewis; alternate, J. H. Colvin. State Convention, Capt. R. P. Paddison and E. A. Hawes. A resolution was passed instructing the delegates to vote and use all honorable means to secure the nomination of each candidate. Every nomination was by acclamation, with not a dissenting vote in the convention.

DUPLIN COUNTY.

RALEIGH, N. C., May 28.—It is reported here to-night that Glenn led in the Duplin primaries to-day. No canvass of the county had been made by friends of Maj. Stedman and the lead of Capt. Glenn was expected.

SAMPSON COUNTY.

CLINTON, N. C., May 28.—Sampson county's primaries were held to-day. North Clinton precinct gives Glenn 49, Stedman 42; South Clinton gives Glenn 43, Stedman 30. The county will be about equally divided between Stedman and Glenn. The county convention will be held Saturday, June 4th.

COLUMBUS COUNTY.

WHITEVILLE, N. C., May 28.—Only three precincts had been heard from as to the primaries in Columbus today, but those three are solid for Maj. Stedman for Governor. Whiteville enthusiastically endorsed Maj. Stedman and passed a ringing resolution instructing its delegates to the county convention on June 1st to vote as a unit for delegates to the State convention who favor his nomination for Governor.

WILSON COUNTY.

WILSON, N. C., May 28.—The Wilson county primaries were held today. From best information obtainable from all precincts Maj. Stedman will secure two thirds of the county's vote in the State Convention, with Glenn next and Turner with a small following. The County Convention will be held on Wednesday, June 1st.

CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

FAYETTEVILLE, N. C., May 28.—Primaries in the country precincts of Cumberland county were held to-day. While all precincts are not in, with two or three yet to hear from, the following is a conservative estimate of Cumberland's total eighteen votes in the State Convention: Stedman, 13½; Glenn, 4½. The County Convention will be held Saturday, June 4th.

WAYNE COUNTY.

MOUNT OLIVE, N. C., May 28.—In the Mount Olive precinct primary today Glenn received 19 votes; Stedman seven and Turner three. Twelve delegates were selected to the County Convention at Goldsboro June 4th and they are instructed to vote for Thomas for Congress. Brown and Hoke were endorsed for Justices of the Supreme Court.

BEAUFORT COUNTY.

WASHINGTON, N. C., May 28.—There was no vote for Governor in the city primaries here last night. Glenn, however, appears to be in the lead in Beaufort county and will probably receive a majority in the County Convention on Wednesday. Maj. Stedman's managers here are not disappointed at the returns, as they expected only a small proportion of the vote.

ROBESON COUNTY.

LUMBERTON, N. C., May 28.—Impossible to get reports from Robeson primaries to-night on account of great excitement incident to contempt hearing and lack of interest in all save that. Glenn, however gets about three fourths of the county.

RED SPRINGS, N. C., May 28.—In the primaries in Red Springs precinct to-day Glenn received 51 and Stedman 44 for Governor. Maxton sends eight delegates for Stedman and one for Glenn, at the County Convention at Lumberton June 2nd. Lumberton's vote was Glenn 65; Steadman 4.

MAXTON, N. C., May 28.—The primaries in Robeson passed off quietly. The town conventions were well attended while the country precincts hardly had enough present to send as delegates. The preference for Governor is between Stedman and Glenn.

The early closing of country's phones makes it impossible to get accurate news from a lage part of the county. Maxton gives Stedman 8, Glenn 1; Smith's gives Stedman 1, Glenn 5; Red Springs gives Stedman 7½, Glenn, 8, Lumberton gives Stedman 1, Glenn 11½, Lumber Bridge gives Stedman 7, Glenn 4, Saddle Tree gives Glenn 4. Total, Stedman 24½, Glenn 33. White House, Britts, and Sterlings are reported to be solid for Glenn. Thompson's and Alfordsville are divided. Howellsville, St. Pauls, Burnt Swamp, Back Swamp and Blue Springs cannot be heard from to night.

The Academy Improvements.

The Public Building Committee of the Board of Aldermen met yesterday at noon to open proposals for the extensive improvements to the Academy of Music other than for the carpentry work which was awarded last week. The committee adjourned until last night when it was decided to reject all bids and call for new ones, official advertisement for which will be made later. For the heating plant the bidders were C. M. Whitlock and Glavin Bros.; for the carpeting, The C. W. Polvogt Co. and J. H. Rehder & Co. In calling for the new heating plant bids it is proposed to let each bidder furnish his own plans and specifications and the committee will reserve the right to accept any one of those submitted. The lights were cut out of the house yesterday preparatory to beginning on the carpentry work Monday.

Clever Swindle, This.

Merchants are advised to look out for two shrewd negro swindlers who are working a shrewd postoffice swindle in several cities of the State and are believed to have Wilmington included in their itinerary. The scheme is to go to some small office, purchase a money order for a small sum, erase the figures with chemicals and raise the face value of the order to whatever amount is deemed necessary. Having procured the order, they usually come to a city and, after postoffice hours, purchase a small bill from a merchant, tendering the order, explaining that the office is closed and receiving a balance in money. Postmaster Wallace would be glad for a report of any attempt of the kind upon any one in Wilmington.

Establish Postoffice Station.

Postmaster T. E. Wallace announces that on July 1st he will establish Postoffice Station No. 1 in Wilmington at the drug store of J. M. Hall & Bro., Fifth and Castle streets. At the station postage stamps of all denominations will be kept on hand; matter may be registered there and money orders sold. It is the first station of its kind ever established in Wilmington though in the larger cities they are frequent. The innovation will be a great convenience to the public and in the hands of the Messrs. Hall the public may be sure of polite and courteous treatment.

Mr. and Mrs Schnibben Bereaved.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schnibben will tenderly sympathize with them in the death of their infant son, George Emil, aged 13 months and 14 days, who died of pneumonia last night at 11:05 o'clock. The funeral announcement will be made later.

AFFIANTS ATTACHED.

Judge Peebles Says "Jail" for Three Who Testified Against Him Personally.

EXCITEMENT IN LUMBERTON.

Contempt Proceedings in Robeson Yesterday—Respondents and Their Attorneys Will Stand by Their Unfortunate Witnesses.

[Special Star Telegram.]

RALEIGH, N. C., May 28.—A climax came in the contempt proceedings at Lumberton to day when Judge Peebles, with the order before him for removal of the case to Judge Brown, awaiting his signature, suddenly turned on three witnesses for respondents, E. W. Kerr, of Sampson, C. F. Carroll, of Duplin, and R. C. Southerland, of Sampson, and ordered them to jail for direct contempt in that their affidavits charging him with drunkenness were corruptly false. The Lumberton bar are preparing to come to Raleigh and apply for habeas corpus for imprisoned witnesses. Mr. Kerr is also fined $250 and Southerland $100. All the parties will be arrested Monday.

Sheriff McLeod, of Roberson, was mentioned by Judge Peebles as having made an objectionable affidavit, but the judge said he would deal with him later. Sheriff McLeod explained and retracted satisfactorily. Mr. Tillett, of Charlotte, of counsel for respondents, remarked that the affidavits regarding drunkenness seemed to "stick in His Honor's craw," but he realized the gravity of the remark as a contempt and retracted with apologies, so that the remark was overlooked by the Judge. Judge Peebles says he will send the case against the Lumberton bar to Judge Brown, as agreed, but will himself deal with these witnesses and others to be arrested, as they could not be convicted before another judge under the rule.

Report from the Scene.

LUMBERTON, N. C., May 28.—An astounding culmination to a not uninteresting day in the contempt proceedings of the Lumberton bar here came this afternoon when Judge Peebles stated that he would transfer the case of the bar to another judge but would himself deal with the affiants. But since only four had sworn to things of their own knowledge, he said he would now deal with them, postponing the attachment of others. Having no substantiating evidence to rebut Sheriff McLeod's affidavit about seeing whiskey in Judge Peebles' room at Fayetteville, he said he would postpone action in his case, but he proceeded to sentence E. W. Kerr, Esq., of Clinton, C. F. Carroll, of Wilmington, and R. C. Southerland, of Clinton, to jail for 30 days with fines of $200 because of direct contempt in presenting their affidavits in open court, about irrelevant matters.

Instantly Mr. C. W. Tillett, counsel for the attorneys, was on his feet and vigorously addressed the court in words to the following effect: "Sir, you recall that we insisted on your stating the issues before we filed affidavits; you refused, but finally said that the charge of drunkenness had been made an issue, and that if we had any affidavits on that point you wanted them."

The court didn't remember and refused to change the order.

"Your Honor," said Mr. Tillett, "if you rely on your memory, as to that matter we will overwhelm you. We can secure two hundred affidavits that you said it, and we did not file an affidavit as to drunkenness till you said it, nor would we." Mr. Busbee spoke to a similar import. All the counsel, in fact, did so and sometimes at one time, while a score were ready to swear to the allegation. Finally, in face of his avowal to the contrary the Judge amended the order. Sheriff McLeod told the Judge that if what the Judge said was in his affidavit, he would go to jail, voluntarily for thirty days. The Judge made no reply and the order was amended.

Finally, the order transferring to Judge Brown or another judge was signed.

The day opened with the filing of numerous affidavits by the Judge. Clerk Humphrey and Deputy Skipper, of Robeson, were examined as to the bar meeting. Their examination was objected to by the respondents, and the point was left to Judge Brown later. The witnesses related in part what took place when the Robeson bar met in March to fix the calendar. It appeared that the lawyers intended to make a calendar, but after talking informally R. C. Lawrence moved not to set the calendar, and N. A. McLean seconded it. The witnesses heard the lawyers mention something about reports of discourtesy, unfairness, the conduct of the Haywood trial and some other matters.

On the question as to the date of presenting the affidavits to ground the case of direct contempt on the filing of the affidavits, the court ruled they were filed in open court. There were objections and exceptions by respondents

There is much feeling in Lumberton over this latest turn in the case and the respondents and their counsel are preparing to secure a writ of habeas corpus. They announce that they will stand by Maj Kerr, Southerland and Carroll to the last. Neither of them are here, the two first named being at their homes in Clinton and Mr. Carroll, who is mail agent between Wilmington and Norfolk, being at his home in Warsaw. All the counsel and others in attendance upon the trial are here to-night. The lawyers express their purpose of moving for impeachment proceedings, and it is said Judge Peebles is not averse to that means of a thorough investigation of the whole matter.

The affidavit of Mr. Kerr under which he is attached for contempt was submitted at the first hearing in Lumberton and was to the effect that in Clinton he visited Judge Peebles' room and saw large quantities of liquor there; the judge asked him to have a drink, but he refused. The affidavits of the other men attached for contempt were submitted at this hearing and are in substance as follows:

C. F. Carroll, a resident of Duplin, upon being subpœnaed, swears: He, Carroll, was at The Orton hotel in Wilmington when Judge Peebles was holding the Spring term of court there and it was stated in the papers that Judge Peebles was compelled to suspend court on account of rheumatism. Carroll saw Judge Peebles at supper in the hotel and in his opinion was very much intoxicated. "His gross intoxication, as indicated by his appearance and manner, drew to him the attention of the other guests in the hotel, all of whom appeared greatly shocked that one occupying his exalted position should so expose himself and bring reproach upon his high and honorable office." He, Carroll, saw Judge Peebles again next morning on the train going north and on this occasion he gave every indication of intoxication. The affiant is personally acquainted with Judge Peebles and has seen and talked with him when he was not under the influence of liquor, so he is confident that on these two occasions Judge Peebles was intoxicated.

R. C. Southerland, an employe of F. R. Cooper, Esq., of Sampson: Affiant noticed Judge Peebles closely on the bench, and in his opinion he was very much under the influence of intoxicants and did not preside with dignity. The affiant saw Judge Peebles when off the bench, and one Sunday night particularly he could not have been otherwise than grossly intoxicated as he sat on the front piazza of the hotel; used such language as no sober man could have used, the language being so foul that the affiant does not care to repeat it; that on the same Sunday afternoon he was so drunk as to stagger on the streets of Clinton.

Geo. B. McLeod, sheriff of Robeson: "When Judge Peebles arrived in Lumberton May 16th he summoned Sheriff McLeod to his room and said: "I God, I understand that the bar of Robeson county is going to file irrelevant matter in their answer and affidavits reflecting upon me." "If they do so, I want to know if you can carry out the mandate and order of the court." That affiant replied, "They can appeal, can they not, judge?" To this Judge Peebles replied, "By God, if they file affidavits reflecting upon me an appeal will not lie, and I want to know if you can carry out the orders of this court." To this affiant replied asking the judge if he wished him to communicate this to the bar. That thereupon Judge Peebles said that he did. * * * That affiant was in the room of Judge Peebles in Fayetteville May 14th, 1904, and while there Judge Peebles asked affiant to drink with him, saying, "Sheriff, I have some French brandy. The doctor says I have shingles and advises me to drink it." Affiant declined, saying, "Judge, your medicine might run short." To this Judge Peebles replied, "No, I have plenty." Affiant saw two one-half gallon bottles on the mantel. In Lumberton Monday, May 16, 1904, affiant was again in Judge Peebles' room and again Judge Peebles invited affiant to drink with him. WILMINGTON, N. C.

SUNDAY MORNING, MAY 29.

SOUTHERN COTTON CONSUMPTION AND COTTON TALK.

When we strike the subject of cotton it brings home a question that is extremely vital to the South. For many years that has been true, but to-day the people of the South realize the fact in a stronger sense than ever. The time was that Southern interests were wrapped up in the matter of cotton production only and the serious question was over production and the consequent lowering of the price of the raw material. Twenty-five years of progress and mill building has made the cotton problem trebly precious to the South. We began with making the cotton, and now we produce it, spin and weave it, and from the seed alone we manufacture oil and cake and bi-products worth $22,000,000 annually. Thus we observe that the South's interests in cotton are greater than those of any other quarter of the globe.

Cotton manufacturing in the South has grown to such an extent that our mills and those of the North have tremendnously increased the consumption of cotton in America. We are, therefore, not dependent upon Europe to take so much of our raw cotton, and the increased consumption at home has enabled us to fix the price in America instead of being subject to the mercy of Europe, which was the principal buyer and put the price on our staple.

Now the increased production abroad as well as in America has greatly eliminated the fear of overproduction of raw cotton, and the fact is the manufacturers in the world are alarmed lest the production will not keep up with the demands of consumption. This is interesting to us, and every step taken by foreign countries to produce cotton in their sub-tropical colonies, and every item about cotton culture in any other portion of the world deeply concerns us. Consequently this from the editorial columns of the Philadelphia Record of Friday will interest the readers of the STAR.

It is possible that the deficiency between the supply of and the demand for raw cotton may cause a resumption of cotton planting in the West Indies. These islands formerly produced an appreciable proportion of the world's supply, but since the end of the civil war in the United States their output of staple has dwindled to almost nothing. The demand for raw cotton during the past ten years has increased nearly 100 per cent., and at this rate it seems unlikely that the United States can keep up with the world's growing requirements.

A greater diversity of crops would be most advantageous for the West Indies, which have grown poor in consequence of their almost entire dependency upon a single and steadily depreciating crop—cane sugar. It is noteworthy that the Porto Rican experiment last year with Sea Island cotton has been a complete and very promising success.

Concerning "Southern Cotton Consumption," this valuable article appeared editorially in Friday's New York Journal of Commerce, which is a high statistical authority and able exponent of commercial questions:

There is nothing new in the facts presented in the monograph on "Consumption of Cotton in the Cotton States" by Mr. Watkins, the cotton expert of the Agricultural Department's Bureau of Statistics, but the facts are brought together and arranged in a manner to make an effective impression. The growth of cotton manufacturing in the Southern States is one of the most interesting and significant industrial movements of recent years. There was some development of this industry in the South before the civil war, but it was relatively unimportant. In the year 1859-60 the cotton crop reached 5,387,052 bales, and was a very large one for that time, but less than two per cent. of it was used as material in that section. The number of mills was 166 and of spindles 304,551, and for ten years there had been no increase in the latter. In 1879-89 there were only 168 mills, and the number of spindles had increased to 568,458, while 33 per cent. of a cotton crop of 5,755,359 bales was consumed by the Southern factories.

The remarkable growth has taken place in the last twenty-five years. The crop has grown progressively larger, though it reached a height in 1898-9 which has not been attained since. In 1889-90 it was 7,472,511 bales, and two years later it reached 9,035,379. Then it fell back for two years on account of unfavorable conditions, and in 1894-5 came up to 9,901,251. There was another relapse for two years, but in 1897-8 the crop was 10,897,857 bales, and in the next year 11,189,509, the maximum yet recorded. In the last two or three years the range has been something above 10,500,000 bales. The increase in the number of Southern mills, and especially in the number of spindles, has been more steady and much more rapid, with the result of consuming an increasing proportion of the crop in the cotton States. The number of mills had reached 232 by 1886, when the number of spindles exceeded 1,100,000. The latter passed 2,000,000 in 1893, when the number of mills was 322. In 1898 there were over 3,500,000 spindles in 425 mills; in 1900 nearly 5,000,000 in 500 mills, and in 1903 over 7,000,000 in 640 mills. This shows that the size of the mills advanced out of proportion to the number. The amount of cotton consumed in 1884-5 was 515,842 bales, or 55 per cent. of the crop. Five years later it had risen to 826,856 bales, or 7.1 per cent; in another five years it was 853,352 bales, or 8.6 per cent. For the two years of a small crop in the interval the percentage was higher. By 1899-1900 the consumption exceeded 1,500,000 or more than 17 per cent. of the crop. In the last recorded year 1902-3 it was nearly 2,000,000 bales, and over 18 per cent. of all that was raised.

In twenty years the production of cotton has increased 96 per cent. in the United States, 73 per cent. in India, 79 in Egypt, and there has been a smaller development in Central Asia and South America. Europe's consumption has increased 95 per cent, and that of the United States 148 per cent.; but the increase has been only 59 per cent. in the North, while it has been 509 in the South. These bald figures suggest their own significance. There is no reason why the United States should not use an increasing proportion of its own cotton, even with an advancing production, and there is every reason why the industry should continue to grow in the South, which has the great advantage of raising the material and facilities for establishing factories near the fields. It has water power and fuel and low cost of transportation, and only needs capital, labor and enterprise to lead the world in cotton manufacturing, if ever the time comes when we are freed from burdens and restrictions that increase the cost of production and hamper the interchange of products.

FOLLOW THE FINGER OF DESTINY.

Judge Alton Brooks Parker has now been in the limelight for months and not a campaign liar has been able to go around and say aught against the sage of Esopus. The quiet, clean, gble, dignified and irreproachable Parker is still there and the Democratic searchlight has flashed here and there and yonder, but it is now focussed on Esopus. It reveals the next President of the United States, and in the back ground is the White House in the midst of a bustling scene, for it is moving day with Theodore Roosevelt. The Rough Rider's nightmare has been saddled for a jaunt along a road that leads out of Washington.

The eyes of North Carolina have long ago followed the searchlight to Esopus and North Carolina is for the winner who does his thinking there and will tell us about it later As the Democracy of North Carolina is for Parker, the State convention which meets at Raleigh on the 23rd of June ought to instruct for him. If the delegates are really for the man whom the searchlight has discovered as the man of the hour they will instruct for him.

SPACE CAN BE HAD IN THE STAR.

This we get from the Philadelphia Record:

A Buffalo newspaper says the general passenger agents of the railroads "are tired of wasting money in advertising in catch-penny publications and in some of the magazines." They show a tendency to "increase their newspaper advertising, which they can the better afford to do by saving the considerable cost of using valueless publications. They realize more and more that the newspapers bring the best and earliest results."

The people whom advertisers desire to reach are always on the spot reading a newspaper. It is curious that people have not made the discovery ere this that every time a newspaper is picked up the advertisement bobs up to get in its work. It strikes us that it is not necessary to fire the eruption of Mont Pelee at a keen business man to make him see the point in what is here indicted.

Children

Have "eyes bigger than their stomachs," according to an old saying. They overeat themselves, and are tempted by all sorts of injurious and indigestible edibles. As a consequence the foundation of serious stomach trouble is often laid in childhood.

For children with "weak" digestion or whose stomachs are diseased, Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery may be confidently recommended. It cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, so that the nourishment contained in food is perfectly assimilated and the puny child is built up by food into a condition of robust health.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition.

Mrs. Rila Gardner, of Waterview, Middlesex Co, Va., writes: "My little daughter is enjoying splendid health. I am glad I found a doctor who could cure my child. Whenever she feels badly I give her Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and she is soon all right. She took twelve bottles of the 'Golden Medical Discovery,' eight bottles of 'Pellets,' and one bottle of Dr. Pierce's Catarrh Remedy and she is well. We thank God for your medicine."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, in paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

JUST AS EASY.

A Baltimorean, fond of arguing religious questions and of "pinning down" those with whom he comes in contact, asked an East Baltimore minister, in the course of a conversation several days ago, if he believed "all of the Bible," says the Baltimore Sun.

"I do," instantly replied the good man.

"Every bit of it?" insisted the questioner dubiously.

"I most certainly do," was the pastor's reply.

"Do you really believe the story about Balaam and the ass?" asked the man with a slight smile.

"Most assuredly I do," responded the clergyman unhesitatingly.

"And you firmly believe," insisted the inquisitive friend, "that the ass Balaam rode under the tree spoke like a person?"

"Yes, I do," asserted the minister with just the slightest suspicion of irritation in his voice.

"Well," asked the questioner, in an I've-got-you-now tone, "can you tell me how it could be possible under any circumstances you can imagine for an ass to talk like a person?"

"Ah, that is easy," asserted the minister, laying his hand on the man's shoulder. "It is just as easy, my friend, for an ass to talk like a man as it is for a man to talk like an ass."

The man had nothing more to say.

Here's what one Wilmington citizen says:

H. Cronenberg, photographer, of 119½ Market street, says: "I used Doan's Ointment and it did its work promptly and permanently. I had a rash all over me and no one knows how I suffered. It was like being in the infernal region and I could get no relief. I did not dare scratch because that made it worse. I tried everything but only to be disappointed. Some one told me about Doan's Ointment and I procured a box at R. R. Bellamy's drug store. I went home and applied some of the ointment and I can say it brought the first relief I had for a long time. I can only add that it is a preparation of great merit."

BRONCHITIS.

Everybody Knows What It Is—But Everybody Does Not Know What Will Cure It.

ROBERT R. BELLAMY TELLS THE PEOPLE OF WILMINGTON.

Asked one day in his store the question, "What is good for Bronchitis?" Mr. Bellamy, our well known druggist, answered, "The best way I can tell you is to ask you to read this letter from Miss Anna Ray, of Bangor, Me. We have lots of such cases right here at home."

It read as follows:

"For five years I was troubled with a terrible cough and bronchitis. I tried a great many different preparations without getting relief. I could not sleep, and I became so weak I could hardly walk, and coughing day and night. Then I took Vinol. What a godsend that first bottle was! I had not taken half of it before I noticed a change for the better. I took four bottles in all and am entirely cured and in perfect health.

"Now I have been talking up Vinol to the people of Wilmington for a long time," continued Mr. Bellamy, "and I suppose some people think I am crazy on the subject, but really I hear such marvellous results from Vinol all the time that I believe it to be the greatest remedy for coughs, colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles that we have ever sold in our store. It never disappoints people, and I do like to sell a thing that gives satisfaction. Vinol is cod liver oil medicine without the oil, and wherever old-fashioned cod liver oil preparations will do good, Vinol will do more good, for it is delicious to the taste and powerful as a curative agent.

"I wish every person in Wilmington who is overworked, run down, debilitated, every old person, every weak woman, every sufferer with fall colds, bronchitis or incipient consumption, every nervous, irritable person or any one suffering with stomach troubles, would take advantage of my guarantee to refund the money if Vinol does not help them and restore them to health. Please call at our store and learn more about it." Robt. R. Bellamy, Druggist.

CURRENT COMMENT.

— Mrs. Letitia Tyler Semper, second daughter of President Tyler, during whose administration she was mistress of the White House, recently celebrated the eighty-fourth anniversary of her birthday at the Louise home, where for nearly a quarter of a century she has lived. During her eventful life at the capital half a century ago she was the friend of the most famous statesmen and public men the country has produced, and her mind, still active and vigorous, recalls the stirring incidents and events of the Whig and Democratic struggles in which her father's administration was conducted. As mistress of the White House she antedated Mrs. Roosevelt some sixty years.—Boston Herald.

— Mr. Bryan, it is said, has determined to make a contest in Nebraska for a seat in the United States Senate. It will furnish definite testimony as to the strength of Mr. Bryan's political views in his own State. In a majority of the other States the Democratic party has repudiated these views, and this is the reason why public opinion condemns Mr. Bryan's persistent efforts to foist upon the party as a whole rejected political principles. Mr. Bryan has a perfect right, however, in his own State, to make his fight for Senator on the Chicago platform, but this in no wise commits the National Democracy, which has already relegated this platform to the rear.—Washington Post.

BLOCK SIGNAL SERVICE

The greatest railroad companies of the country employ the best engineers and most careful trainmen. Yet they spend thousands of dollars in equipping their roads with the block signal system so that they can be absolutely sure of the best service and of the public safety. That is just the principle that obtains in our prescription department. We double every check Rx that goes over our counter. Then, too, we employ competent men to prepare prescriptions, but we don't stop there. The man's work is checked and verified before the medicine leaves the store.

It is quite reasonable to expect good medicine from Ahrens'. Active demand keeps the stock fresh. And again the active demand warrants us in carrying a large variety of goods so that every demand can be met. And still again, the active demand brings us to a reiteration of our motto, "Quick sales and small profits." Send the prescription to Ahrens'.

How to Make Hair Grow

is the simplest thing in the world if you go about it properly.

In the first place, throw away all the oils, greases, washes, mineral concoctions, and stimulating scalp scarifiers that you have accumulated on your toilet table.

Believe this, that what your hair needs is food.

In the next place, give your hair a good shampoo with a pure, non-alkaline, antiseptic, purifying soap.

We recommend Crani-Tonic Soap. It's a scalp and hair soap.

This will give you a new start in life (hair life).

In the third place, commence and continue a daily application of

to the scalp in accordance with directions in "Hair Care," a book about the hair, a copy of which we will send you free on request.

This is, briefly, the only way to make your hair grow.

It is the resort to food versus drugs.

It is the true way; the natural way; therefore the right way.

Dr. PIERCE'S FAVORITE PRESCRIPTION FOR WEAK WOMEN.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

— Greensboro Telegram: Laborers began yesterday the taking up of the trees and excavating for the new Centenary Methodist E. Church, which will be located at the corner of Fayetteville and Arlington streets. The new church will cost in the neighborhood of $25,000 and will be ready for worship by Nov. 1st.

— Newbern Journal, May 28th: One of the largest catches of croakers ever made in these waters was made in the river Neuse, near the mouth of South river yesterday. Will Harris and Simon Jones, two dragnet fishermen, struck a large shoal of fish and drew out 6,000 at one haul. They were brought to this city and shipped to different points.

— The death of Mr. John Flowers, at his home in Goldsboro, Friday morning, was the result of injuries which he received last Monday morning by being run over by a bicycle. He was turning around a corner of the city hall when a boy on a bicycle suddenly dashed around the corner, knocking him down and causing internal injuries.

— Winston-Salem Sentinel: Although Judge Boyd has been rather free in his remarks about North Wilkesboro, the tin-pan serenade given him by a crowd of boys the other night was bad behavior and unfortunate. The citizens, in condemning this conduct and taking steps to punish the offenders, make all the amends in their power.

— Charlotte Chronicle: The Continental Manufacturing Company, operating the old Victor Cotton Mill, posted notices to-day informing the operatives that the plant would be shut down after this week. The suspension is due to unsatisfactory market conditions—the high price of cotton and the low price of yarns. Mr. A. C. Hutchinson, secretary and treasurer of the corporation, informs the Chronicle that the suspension will probably be for a period of 60 days.

— Raleigh News and Observer: The report that Dr. Charles Baskerville will accept the position as head of the University Department of the College of the City of New York will be heard with profound regret in this State and city. The reputation made by Dr. Baskerville has gratified North Carolinians. Personally he is one of the most accomplished of gentlemen and the State will deeply regret to lose him and his charming wife, daughter of the late Hon. Geo H. Snow, of Raleigh.

— The Raleigh Times speaking of the statement that sentiment is in favor of sending to the St. Louis covention a "big four," consisting of Governor Aycock, Senator Simmons, Senator Overman, and one of the candidates for governor, says: If any extensive discussion has been had of who should represent North Carolina in the national convention it has not been in the papers. To send three office holders and a candidate for an office to the convention would lay the Democratic party open to the same criticism that the republican party has received from the papers of the State, that the convention at Greensboro was dominated by office holders. The truth is, nobody knows this far ahead what will happen at a Democratic convention.

— Charlotte News: It strikes us as something amazing that newspapers published in North Carolina and having the interests of the State at heart, as we must believe the newspapers published in North Carolina have, should be finding in the report of the investigating committee a "vindication" of the outrageous attempt to get possession of the A. & N. C. Railroad in the receivership business, or the suggestion that the receiver should still be appointed. Nothing could please the Republican party more just now in its attack upon Governor Aycock's administration than the Raleigh Times' contention that the present administration of the railroad has been no worse nor has it been any better than the previous ones. The committee's report shows that it has been infinitely better than the black and tan administration that preceded it.

— Greensboro Telegram: Mr. Wilkins U. Greene, E. M., has resigned as general manager of the Fentress Mining Company, and will open an office in Charlotte, N. C., as mining engineer, assayer and chemist. He believes that the mining industry of the State of North Carolina is only in its infancy and it is only a question of getting the plain facts before Northern capital when we will see the hoped for increase in the legitimate mining of low grade ores which could not be touched in the West, on account of the low prices for fuel and labor which are the principal expense in mining. The wonderful deposit of tin ore near Gaffney, near the State line will do much to show the resources of the State as we are now depending on the tin mines of Wales, England, for this valuable metal. "Keep your eye on the mining industry of North Carolina," said Mr. Greene.

— "That man," said Bleacher, indicating the home player who was coaching vociferously, "is the new infielder they've signed, but he'll never do for second base." "For goodness sake!" exclaimed Dubley, who was witnessing his first game, "is he supposed to be singing?"—Philadelphia Press.

A Startling Test.

To save a life Dr. T. G. Merritt, of North Mehoopany, Pa., made a startling test resulting in a wonderful cure. He writes: "A patient was attacked with violent hemorrhages, caused by ulceration of the stomach. I had often found Electric Bitters excellent for acute stomach and liver troubles, so I prescribed them. The patient gained from the first, and has not had an attack in fourteen months." Electric Bitters are positively guaranteed for Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Constipation and Kidney troubles. Try them. Only 50c, at R. R. BELLAMY'S drug store.

50c. Bottle Free.

When Medicine Fails, Try Liquozone—We'll Pay for It.

Medicine must fail in a germ trouble, because medicine never kills inside germs. Any germ-killing drug is a poison to you, and it cannot be taken internally.

Liquozone is the only way known to kill germs in the body without killing the tissues, too. It does in a germ trouble what no drugs, no skill in the world, can accomplish without it. To prove this—if you need it—we will gladly pay for a bottle and give it to you to try.

Acts Like Oxygen.

Liquozone is the result of a process which, for more than 20 years, has been the constant subject of scientific and chemical research. Its virtues are derived solely from gas, made in large part from the best oxygen producers. By a process requiring immense apparatus and 14 days' time, these gases are made part of the liquid product.

The result is a product that does what oxygen does. Oxygen gas, as you know, is the very source of vitality. Liquozone is a vitalizer with which no other known product can compare. But germs are vegetables; and Liquozone—like an excess of oxygen—is deadly to vegetal matter. Yet this wonderful product which no germ can resist, is, to the human body, the most essential element of life.

We Paid $100,000

For the American rights to Liquozone—the highest price ever paid for similar rights on any scientific discovery. We did this after testing the product for two years, through physicians and hospitals, in this country and others.

That price was paid because Liquozone does in germ troubles what all the drugs, all the skill in the world, cannot accomplish without it. It carries into the blood a powerful yet harmless germicide, to destroy at once and forever the cause of any germ disease. And no man knows another way to do it. Liquozone is so certain that we publish on every bottle an offer of $1,000 for a disease germ that it cannot kill.

Germ Diseases.

These are the known germ diseases. All that medicine can do for these troubles is to help Nature overcome the germs, and such results are indirect and uncertain. Liquozone kills the germs, wherever they are, and the results are inevitable. By destroying the cause of the trouble, it invariably ends the disease, and forever.

SENATOR QUAY DEAD.

Succumbed to a Long Illness at His Home in Beaver, Penn.

By Telegraph to the Morning Star.

BEAVER, PA., May 28.—Colonel Matthew Stanley Quay, senior senator from Pennsylvania, slept peacefully into death at 2:48 this afternoon after an illness which had been more or less persistent for the past year, which took a turn for the worst ten days ago and which the doctor diagnosed as chronic gastritis.

The funeral will be at 2 o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday, May 31, and the remains will be interred in the historic family burial plot in Beaver Cemetery.

William Montgomery, cashier of the Allegheny National Bank of Pittsburg and a close business and social friend of the senator, estimates that Senator Quay's estate is worth about $800,000, of which $400,000 is absolutely secured to his widow.

It is reported that a conference is to be held in Philadelphia Sunday at which the successor to Senator Quay may be decided on and Governor Pennypacker asked to call a special session of the legislature. At the Sunday conference will be J. Don Cameron; Israel Durham and others Among those mentioned as possible successor to Senator Quay is H. C. Frick, with whom Mr. Cameron spent the night after leaving Quay, and there is a very strong feeling in certain circles that J. Donald Cameron will succeed Senator Quay and harmonize all the State factions.

MEMORIAL HOSPITAL NOTES.

Miss Eaton Returns from Raleigh—Assistant to Surgeon—Sprunt Annex.

Miss Edith Eaton, superintendent of nurses at the James Walker Memorial Hospital, has returned from Raleigh, where she attended the annual meeting of the North Carolina Association of Trained Nurses.

Mr. Morris Caldwell, of Concord, N. C., a student at the Jefferson Medical College, of Philadelphia, has become assistant to Dr. Joseph Akerman, surgeon in charge of the J. W. M. Hospital and will remain during his Summer vacation.

Yesterday was the day appointed for the opening of bids for the building of the W. H. Sprunt Annex to the hospital, but owing to the absence of one or two members of the committee from the city, consideration of the proposals was deferred.

Coast Line Promotions.

It is announced at Atlantic Coast Line headquarters here that effective June 1st Mr. Robert Scott, of the auditing department, is promoted to the office of Insurance Agent with headquarters in Wilmington, succeeding Capt. J. P. Russell, who is transferred to Richmond, Va., as superintendent of the Richmond district, succeeding Mr. M. A SWEEPING AND VALUABLE VICTORY

Gained by the Japanese in the Fighting at Kin-Chou, Nan-Shan and Talien-Wan.

THEIR TOTAL LOSS 3,000 MEN.

Captured Fifty Guns and Cleared the Way to Port Arthur—Russian Loss Estimated at 2,000—They Retired Beaten and Failed to Rally.

By Cable to the Morning Star

TOKIO, May 28.—Japan paid heavily for her victories at Kin-Chou, Nan-Shan and Talien-Wan, losing 3,000 men in killed and wounded in the repeated assaults against these positions, but she scored a sweeping and valuable victory over the Russians, capturing fifty guns, clearing the way to Port Arthur, and inflicting losses on the Russians which in the end are expected to total two thousand men. It is doubted if the Russians will stand again north of Port Arthur. They retired from the field beaten and they failed to rally at Nan Quan-Lang where it was anticipated that a second stand would be made.

The desperate onslaughts of the Japanese on the heights of Nan-Shan were telling, for the Russians left 300 dead in the trenches there. A complete search of this field is expected to show a greater number of dead.

Nan-Quong-Lang was occupied yesterday morning by a force of infantry, artillery and engineers under the command of General Nakamura. The main Japanese force spent Friday night in the villages around Nan-Shan. The soldiers were greatly fatigued as a result of the constant fighting, but they entered with much spirit upon the new operations.

A force of Russians held Sanchilipu station, which is northwest of Dalny, but the Japanese drove them out. The Russians abandoned and burned the station and retired in the direction of Port Arthur.

The estimates of the Russians engaged in the defence of Kin-Chou, Nan-Shan hill and the south shore of Talien-Wan bay vary, but it is evident that the Russians drew for men from the forces at Port Arthur and offered all the resistance possible. It is understood here that Lieutenant General Stoessel, commander of the military forces at Port Arthur, was in personal command of the recent operations.

As soon as the Japanese troops have rested they will press on to the south.

The Assault on Nan Shan.

The Japanese assault on Nan Shan hill was one of the fiercest and bloodiest affairs in modern warfare. In the earlier rushes of the engagement every man participating was shot down before he reached the first line of the Russian trenches. It was found necessary to stop these infantry charges and renew the artillery fire from the rear before the final and successful assault on the Russian position could be made. The success of this assault was brought about by one detachment of Japanese troops, more intrepid than their comrades, who succeeded in piercing the Russian lines. A splendid stroke of fortune was the discovery and destruction by the Japanese of the electric wires leading to the mines at the eastern foot of the Nan Shan hill. This prevented the Russians from exploding these mines when the Japanese infantry crossed the ground where they had been placed. It is possible that the fortune of the day hinged upon these mines. If the Russians had been able to explode them at the right time the losses among the Japanese troops would have been tremendous, and it is possible also that the Russians would have been able to hold the hill.

Nan Shan was splendidly defended. Nearly fifty guns of various sizes were mounted on the various emplacements, and there were also two batteries of quick firing field pieces. The artillery was sheltered behind loopholes trenched on the terraces of the hill. The infantry manning the field pieces ran with them around the hill, thus using these guns for the protection of the most important points.

The Japanese began the fight by bringing all their field guns into action and concentrating their fire on the emplacements on the hill. By 11 o'clock in the morning the principal Russian batteries had been silenced. The two Russian field batteries then withdrew to Nan-Ruan-Ling hill and from there continued to fire on the Japanese until nightfall.

After the Russian batteries had been silenced the Japanese artillery opened on the enemy's trenches, the Japanese advancing meanwhile to within rifle range. The Japanese gradually worked to within 400 metres of the Russian lines, where they encountered wire in other entanglements. They succeeded in discovering an opening in these obstacles and getting finally to within two hundred metres of the Russian trenches they rushed for the line. Several successive charges were made, but every officer and man in the attacking parties was shot down, twenty or thirty metres from the lines. These charges were then stopped, and the Japanese artillery renewed its preparatory fire on the enemy's position. Towards evening a detachment of Japanese carried a section of the Russian trenches, breaking through the enemy's line. Hundreds of the comrades of these men, inspired by their success, sprang forward and then the entire Japanese line swept up the hill, driving the Russians from their positions. It was in the desperate infantry charges that the Japanese sustained the bulk of their losses.

The Japanese Squadron.

TOKIO, May 28.—The Japanese squadron which was assigned to cooperate in the attack of the second army on Kin-Chou and Nan-Shan-hill, composed of the gunboats Thukishi, Amagi, Heiyen and Chokai and the first torpedo boat flotilla, entered Kin-Chou bay on Wednesday. A heavy sea prevented its participation in the fighting of that day. The weather cleared on Thursday morning, however, and in spite of the shallowness of the water the squadron steamed close to shore and bombarded the Russian batteries.

Early in the action a shell passed over the forward deck of the Chokai, killing a lieutenant and two petty officers and wounding two men. The torpedo boat flotilla shelled the railroad near the Shaos river. The torpedo boats took soundings and guided the larger ships. The squadron advanced with the Japanese right flank and aided in covering it. Later in the day the falling tide compelled the withdrawal of the larger warships.

Captain Hayashi, commander of the Chokai, was killed by the explosion of a shell near one of the ship's guns. Four other men were wounded. The vessels themselves were not injured.

Japs Marching On.

PARIS, May 29.—The Tokio correspondent of the "Matin" says that the second line of defence on the Liao Tung peninsula has been occupied by the Japanese without resistance. The authorities expect, the correspondent adds, that Port Arthur will fall during the second fortnight in June.

Orel a Total Loss.

PARIS, May 28.—The correspondent of the "Journal" at St. Petersburg says naval officers there consider the battleship Orel will be a total loss. Her keel, it is said, is split.

Official Report.

WASHINGTON, May 25.—The following cablegram from the Foreign Office at Tokio was received at the Japanese legation to-day:

"Tokio, May 28.—The commander of the army attacking Kin-Chou reports that a detachment of our troops consisting of infantry, artillery and engineers occupied Nan-Kwan Ling on the morning of May 27th. The enemy fled in the direction of Port Arthur, after burning a railway station at San Shi-Hii-Tao, northwest of Dalny. On the 26th our troops captured fifty guns, besides many other things The number of the enemy's dead alone and left in the field amounted to 400. Our casualties, including dead and wounded, are estimated at 3,000."

Other advices to the legation contain details given in Associated Press dispatches from Tokio, saying the Japanese captured all the guns on the forts.

Japanese Plans.

NEW CHWANG, May 28—A staff officer, just from Mukden, says the deliberation and precision of the enemy has surprised General Kuropatkin, who at first believed the Japanese campaign would be one of dashing recklessness, with more theatrical display about the manœuvres than strategy.

A Chinese merchant, just arrived, who left Dalny five days ago, says the Russians have vacated the town which at the time of his departure had not been occupied by the Japanese forces. The latter were still engaged in landing troops at Kin-Chou bay. It is said on excellent authority that the Japanese plan is to use a force of 100,000 men in their operations against Port Arthur and take it by storm in a fortnight. They realize that their losses in the execution of this plan will be severe, but it is considered better to take the risk than to keep a large army idle for three months. They do not propose, it is said, to penetrate into the interior of the country any further than Mukden.

The Baltic Fleet.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 28, 8:36 P. M.—Although work is being pursued night and day to prepare the Baltic fleet for service, it is feared now that it cannot be ready to sail for the Far East before September. The delay is considered especially unfortunate in view of the situation at Port Arthur, where the arrival of the fleet before the Fall would compel the raising of the seige.

Russians in Corea.

TOKIO, May 28.—The Japanese are not seriously disturbed by the Russian operations in Eastern Corea. The movements of the Cossack cavalry and battery of guns that accompanies them are being closely watched by the Japanese, who are confident in their ability to protect their communications and maintain military supremacy of the Japanese in Corea. The Yalu victory which opened the Yalu estuary to water communication diminishes the importance of the line of land communication from Chinampho to Wiju. The loss of their naval power compels the Russians to avoid the sea along the eastern coast of Corea and limits their operations to the land, where transportation difficulties prevent the concentration and operation of a large land force.

Colored Baseball Series.

The "New York Royal Giants" closed the series of baseball with the "Black Stockings," of Wilmington, at Hilton yesterday afternoon, taking all three games and leaving on their tour of the South for Darlington, S. C. The score was 13 to 7. Mr. F. W. Bancks was umpire for the series and the teams were well pleased with his decisions. The "Giants" have signed and will take with them four of Wilmington's best men—Reaves, Walker, Brooks and DeLaney. The visitors made a very favorable impression upon large numbers of both white and colored persons who attended the games daily.

Death of a Young Lady.

Friends will hear with sincere sorrow of the death of Miss Julia J. Cowan, daughter of Mr. R. S. Cowan, which occurred Friday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock at the family residence, No. 310 Hanover street. She was in the 23rd year of her age and was a young lady of sweet Christian character. She had been in poor health for some time. There are left to mourn their loss her father, a brother, Mr. J. Thos. Cowan, and a sister, Mrs. Jno. W. Batson, of Burgaw. The funeral will be conducted at 8 o'clock this morning by the Rev. Dr. A. D. McClure and the remains will be taken on the morning train to Burgaw for interment.

Atlantic Yacht Club Opening

The repairs, improvements, etc., to the Atlantic Yacht Club are nearing completion and the doors will be thrown open to members June 1st. The bowling alley is in excellent condition. The sewerage has been completed and there is an excellent supply of pure artesian water with connections for bathing. Electric lights have been installed and the ball room is a thing of beauty. The sleeping arrangements are almost completed. With an efficient janitor and other attractions a most brilliant season for the Atlantic is assured. The list of new members is almost complete.

Rolled Him Like a Pencil.

James Daniel, 22 years old, switchman for the A. C. L., was caught between the sides of two cars on the yards here yesterday morning and severely but not seriously injured. The negro was swinging on the side of a freight car and in passing another car standing on an almost parallel track, he was caught between the two and rolled over several times as one would roll a pencil between the palms. The negro was sent to the hospital, where he was doing very well last night.

IMPOSSIBLE TO ACCEPT TERMS.

Preposterous Demands Made by Morocco Brigands for Release of Their Captives.

SECRETARY HAY'S DECISION.

U. S. Warships Ordered to Tangier—Admiral Jewell's Squadron Sailed from Azores—French Government Fears a Turbulent Riot.

By Cable to the Morning Star.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—The kidnappers of Perdicaris and his stepson Varley, in Morocco, have submitted their terms for ransom and the State Department has decided that they absolutely are impossible of acceptance.

A long cablegram from United States Consul Gummere was received by Secretary Hay to-day. The consul stated in substance that Rasouly, the bandit who kidnapped Perdicaris and his stepson Varley, had been heard from and made a set of demands which the British minister and Mr. Gummere had deemed it their duty to lay before their governments. Rasouly demanded that the Moorish forces should be withdrawn from the district in which his band operated, leaving them in control. He asked a large money ransom, to be collected from the governors of Tangier and Fez, who happen to be bitter enemies. He further demanded absolute immunity for himself and his followers from pursuit or punishment for the kidnapping and other crimes which they had committed in the past. To cap the climax of his demands, Rasouly insists that the United States and Great Britain should solemnly guarantee the observance by the Moorish government of the foregoing stipulations.

Secretary Hay had a conference with the President and it was agreed that Rasouly's terms could not be met. To grant them would be equivalent to forcing the Sultan of Morocco to abdicate in favor of a brigand, so far as a considerable part of Moorish territory was concerned. Moreover, the United States government could not, without establishing a new and dangerous precedent, undertake to guarantee the acts of another government.

PARIS, May 28.—The approaching arrival of United States warships at Tangier, Morocco, is viewed with some apprehension in official quarters here, as it is feared it may lead to a turbulent demonstration. Those who are familiar with Moroccan methods say that an attempt of a naval force to rescue Messrs. Perdicaris and Varley probably would lead to their being killed. The French minister continues to urge the Moroccan authorities to make terms with the brigands.

WASHINGTON, May 28.—Rear Admiral Jewell reported by cable to the Navy Department to-day the arrival of the European squadron under his command, embracing the Olympia, Baltimore and Cleveland, at Horta, Azores. Orders were sent to the admiral to-day to proceed to Tangier, Morocco, and his fleet sailed for that port.

The Navy Department is advised of the sailing of the Atlanta, Marietta and Castine, ships of the South Atlantic squadron from Teneriff for Tangier to join the flagship Brooklyn. The detention of the South Atlantic squadron at the Moroccan port will be dependent on conditions. If the situation on the arrival of Rear Admiral Jewell does not require the presence of the two squadrons of American warships for the protection of American interests in that quarter, Rear Admiral Chadwick will be authorized to proceed on his cruise toward his station in the South Atlantic.

GREAT MACADAM HIGHWAY.

Magnificent State Road to Be Built Across Missouri.

Plans for a public highway across the state of Missouri between St. Louis and Kansas City are virtually completed, and, according to W. H. Moore, president of the National Good Roads association, work probably will begin upon the roadway early next spring.

The project has been a cherished one ever since the national convention of good roaders was held in Chicago in 1900. At that time the feasibility of building a cross state road was discussed by Missourians, and President Moore was asked to use his best efforts to make the undertaking successful.

As proposed the roadway will be 100 feet wide throughout its course, says the St. Louis Republic. While it is to be built primarily for stability it is also the purpose of the projectors to make it one of the most beautiful highways of the world.

Macadam eight inches deep and twenty-four feet wide will form the principal roadbed, but clay wagon paths will parallel the main roadway on both sides for dry weather. Between the dirt roadbeds and the fences which will follow the course of the road water sluices are to be made for drainage. Between these sluices and the fences a wide plank walk for pedestrians is also to be laid, and between the sluices and the walk trees are to be planted for shade.

These trees are to be planted by persons living along the route of the roadway, according to a clause in the agreement which will be drawn up between the projectors and the officials of the counties through which the road passes.

According to the calculations of Mr. Moore, about fifty-five miles of this cross state highways are already completed, and from observations made along the roads six counties have material from which the road can be constructed. The cost of the road is not to exceed $3,000 a mile, which will bring the total cost when completed in the neighborhood of $900,000.

The building of the road, if all the plans of the National Good Roads association are carried out, will devolve largely upon convict labor, the vagrant and those guilty of misdemeanors. Taxation will form the chief means of raising money to complete the work, each county paying a pro rata of the expense. Money appropriated by the legislature for the improvement of the roadways will also be used on the cross state highway.

The Barebone Family.

The celebrated name of Praise God Barebone was borne by a member of the Cromwell parliament called together after the dissolution of the Long parliament in 1653. The royalists called the assembly "Barebones' parliament." At the time when General Monk was in London Barebone headed the mob that presented a petition to parliament against the recall of Charles II. Of the Barebone family there were three brothers, each of whom had a sentence for a name—Praise God Barebone, Christ-came-into-the-world-to-save Barebone and If-Christ-had-not-died-thou-hadst-been-damned Barebone.
